

Rosie Whitelock

Living Christ's Love, Teaching His Word

A motivational speaker, gifted teacher, and engaging storyteller, who blends humor and intellectual stimulation to bring the Bible to life in our hearts, and to bring us to deeper faith in our Savior.

At conferences, seminars, and retreats, Rosie encourages her listeners to trust God in the midst of good times as well as in the throes of suffering. Pain intruded and enveloped her own life as her daughter, Whitney, fought cancer at age 5, endured sexual abuse at age 14, and died tragically at age 17. Since then her other children have survived tragically critical accidents.

Through these unthinkable circumstances, Rosie learned to trust God. As she clung to Him, He surrounded her with His love and enlarged her understanding of His character.

Rosie's refreshing sense of humor and vibrant faith infuse her talks, gently nudging her audience toward a closer walk with the Savior, and teaching them through Whitney's words, "to love God in a terrifying world".

*The Lord favors those who fear Him,
Those who wait for His lovingkindness*

What People are Saying...

"Having known Rosie for 20 years, I can wholeheartedly recommend her as a speaker not only because of her warm and engaging personality, but because she has been brought down into the pit and like David she can honestly say 'The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit'".

Robin Lewis Ulrich,
Missionary to Bulgaria

"When Rosie spoke to our women, she somehow managed to connect one-on-one with nearly every person present. That element of her ministry was as powerful as her messages, which touched everyone present at a deep level. She has the winning combination of being a savvy, brilliant thinker, a student of the Word, and a tender-hearted shepherdess."

Sandra Glahn, Author
Dallas Theological Seminary Professor

"Rosie Whitelock is a powerful woman who speaks to the realities of womens' issues today. She has walked a most difficult road with God and does not offer fluff, but substance in living for Jesus Christ and with integrity in today's world. Rosie has remained faithful to the Savior through great burdens which seldom touch families as deeply as they have hers. Few are the women such as Rosie who 'head on' the battles of this world with courage, conviction and realism."

Jennifer Amanda Walker, L.P.C.
Christian Counselor in Nashville

"Rosie's loving heart comes shining through in her talks. Her personal honesty and transparency tugs at the hearts of her listeners as they identify with her stories."
